The Carnival is in full progress in Jacksonville this week. We regret being unable to take it in.

The county commissioners are in session this week. They will canvass the election returns tomorrow, (Friday).

We notice that the newspapers are still 'agin' shipping green oranges. But the growers keep on shipping. Time and again they have learned that nine years out of ten the early markets are the best.

State Fair at Tampa begins next week, November 14, and lasts until November 29. The editor of THE CHAMPION expects to attend the entire time having in charge a W. C. T. U. department as she did last year.

The official election ballots used in DeSoto county this year were the product of THE CHAMPION office, the first time in a number of years that this work has been done in the county. The work on these ballots is pronounced excellent by good judges but that was to be expected from an office famous for its 'Artistically Neat Printing.

We are glad the campaign is over. It developed more meanness and lying than we thought our people would countenance. Good men, and measures advocated for the interest of the common people, were traduced until it would seem nobody would dare hereafter to have any convictions, or if they had them to espouse them. It costs too much of worry and pays no adequate return.

DeSoto county exhibits are solicited at once for the State Fair. They will be shipped free if addressed to the State Fair Association, Tampa, marked for DeSoto exhibit. The goods will also be returned free. A large part of the exhibit will leave the county on Saturday and Monday next or November 10 and 12 but if you can't get yours there so soon send it later. Send something.

Some people living in South Florida had made homes there, grown orange groves, but the high waters drowned their groves. They asked for help of their more fortunate brothers, not by way of money but by votes. They received instead slander, for those trying to help them and a wholesale vote against them. Now the common people would have given help but the rich would not—they prefer to send contributions to San Francisco earthquake sufferers. Their Florida brothers should go and locate on high pine lands, there's still plenty of them, and if they won't on their own head be the consequence.

And the recording angel made a note of these things and in the day when the books are opened the rich men shall receive the reward due them for their unjust deeds.

TAMPA BAY HOTEL.

Ideal Stopping Place for Visitors to the Fair.

Visitors to Tampa during the coming State Fair will find no place to stop equal to the magnificent Tampa Bay Hotel. It is famed over the whole United States as one of the finest hotels to be found anywhere in the world. Its managers have during the past summer expended $25,000 on its improvement, and it is prepared to afford the most delightful accommodation to the crowds who will attend the Fair.

Manager Lauber tells us that rates have been fixed during the Fair as low as 3.00 per day for first-rate room and board; but, of course, more luxurious apartments may be secured at higher prices. A visit to Tampa would hardly be a success unless you patronize this palatial hostelry; and he is a wise man who will at once engage a room either by wire or writing to Manager Lauber.

T. K. Dishong is quite ill this week.

Mrs. L. C. Dishong is shopping in Arcadia today.

Court still in session. Will probably last all week.

Capt. J. C. Powell, of Harney, is visiting in Arcadia this week.

Zolfo sent a number of ladies to Arcadia this week shopping.

Lanier's for oysters, served daintily and fit for the gods to eat.

Mrs. Davis, formerly of the Arcadia House, but now of Punta was shopping in Arcadia today. Her sister accompanied her.

E. M. Barnett is doing rubber tire buggy work at Tampa or Jacksonville prices. Save freight both ways by patronizing him.

Go to Lanier's for your oysters. He serves them in any style in a way that can't be beaten by anybody. He also sells them by the quart.

J. H. Thompson, of Ft. Green, was in Arcadia this week and supplied the Bridge Store with several cans of his famous hammock syrup.

B. A. Houston has started on a trip for the benefit of his health. He went to Tampa and Jacksonville and expects to be gone about a month.

Dr. R. Goldstein, optician, will be in Arcadia at the Arcadia Hotel on Friday and Saturday, November 16 and 17. Eyes examined free. It is dangerous to delay, and if your eyes are troubling you see Doctor Goldstein.

Cyril Baldwin, one of DeSoto county's boys, is spending the winter in Pittsburg, Pa., with the M. O. Croggins Co., commission merchants. He is handling DeSoto county oranges, having the contract of several of his neighbors to sell their fruit. We hope the venture will turn out satisfactorily to all concerned.

The ladies of DeSoto county are urgently requested to send cut flowers to the State Fair Association, care of DeSoto County Exhibit after November 18th until the 25th. There is a 40.00 prize for the booth that makes the best display of flowers and DeSoto is going to do her best to carry off this premium. Let everyone help.
